

Giordano aids cyclone victims in Myanmar

May 28th, 2008, Hong Kong

Acting on its "World Without Strangers" slogan, the Giordano Group donated supplies worth MMK 5 million (about HK$100,000) to aid to the victims of severe tropical cyclone Nargis. Nargis hit southern Myanmar on May 2nd and caused over 100,000 fatalities and widespread damage. The Minister for Hotels and Tourism and member of Myanmar National Disaster Preparedness Central Committee Major-General Soe Naing accepted the donation from representatives of Giordano Myanmar in a ceremony held on May 26th.

Giordano Myanmar also mobilized volunteers from among its staff and organized a trip to the affected region on May 17th to distribute rice, cooking oil, blankets, canned food, mosquito nets, medicines and other relief supplies to cyclone victims.
